

One on One Leadership Coaching

The Changing Landscape of Leadership

VUCA (Volatile, Uncertain, Complex and Ambiguous) characterizes the unsettling environment we live and work in. More than ever, people and organizations need direction and leadership, but who is going to lead us?

Awesome Journey Inc. focuses on the impact VUCA has on leaders and leadership. We support new ways to deal with unpredictability, information overload, and increased challenges, while maintaining trust and increasing accountability.

Awesome Journey's experience in leadership development provides a clear view of what is required to lead in today's disruptive and complex world. We understand the way leaders think and the challenges they face. Our programs transform leadership by expanding capacity to think in more systemic, strategic, complex and interdependent ways.

Year Long - Why a Year Long?

Awesome Journey's year long leadership coaching program is designed to work exclusively with executives and emerging leaders, who are serious about expanding their leadership capacity to lead through change.

Using our unique inside-out learning approach, we will focus on the nature and function of being human, by developing three core mindsets over twelve months:

- Reflective Self: To become intentional in commitments.
- Expressive Self: To cultivate trust and presence.
- Collaborative Self: To expand creative action and possibility.

Each month includes an area of focus that will question assumption, develop awareness, generate action, and create practices to sustain new habits.

Awesome Journey Promises to:

- Increase your focus
- Support your accountability
- Provide access to leadership mindsets and competencies
- Expand your self-awareness
- Become your learning partner and quality sounding board
